The Arts Council February Exhibit

The St. Anthony Arts Council exhibits have resumed. Because of COVID, the exhibits are now online. View the latest exhibit at www.st-anthony.net/the-arts-council.html. This exhibition explores the art of Lewallen Matthews. If you are interested in being on the Arts Council, you don't have to be an artist to join. Computer skills would be beneficial. Call the office if you have questions and leave a message for Becky.

Godly Play for Children via Zoom Sundays at 9 am

We have been invited to join St. Barnabas for a weekly Sunday School Zoom meeting. Every Sunday at 9 am we will be hearing a Godly Play story as a large group and then break out into smaller, age-based groups for wondering and engagement. Parents are encouraged to attend with children. This class is appropriate for ages 3-12 years. For more information and to register your child, go to <https://www.st-anthony.net/childrens-ministry.html>.

Live Streaming Now Available for All Services

We are now live streaming via YouTube all our worship services that are conducted indoors. To view the worship service live, go to www.st-anthony.net/doing-church-online.html at the scheduled time of worship. The service will also be available to view here at a later time.

Worship Service Reservations

Reservations can be made on a week-to-week basis online at www.st-anthony.net/worship-reservations.html or by calling the church office at 480.451.0860 beginning on Monday of each week.
